

Lund International Architecture Film Festival 2018

Press Release

ArchFilmLund Prize 2018 for the best documentary film goes to

Film Director François Xavier Destors from France
For his film

”Melting Souls”

For a story told with sensitivity about a city built in an area with unimaginably harsh environment, and where one of the world’s most horrendous events took place, focusing on its inhabitants who despite all difficulties and desire to leave, live a meaningful everyday life thanks to the community and artistic creativity.
